Please list the name(s) of all individuals who have permission to make billing inquiries on this account(spouse, 2nd parent, etc)

ALL INFORMATION MUST BE COMPLETED ABOVE IN ORDER TO BILL INSURANCE

You are responsible for understanding the provisions of your health insurance plan and coverage. As a courtesy our billing office will contact your insurance provider and conduct a benefit check. We will provide you with this information at the second visit. Please bear in mind that, ultimately, carrier adjudications after the visits determine financial responsibilities. Health insurance is a contract between you and your insurance company and you are responsible for any services that are rendered on your behalf if your insurance company does not compensate us for those services. In addition, signing this form gives us permission to communicate with your insurance company regarding payment. Your insurance company may request information about the services we provide, including but not limited to a diagnosis, description of services or symptoms, treatment plan or summary, and in some cases, your entire file. Once your insurance company receives this information, we have no control over the security measures they use to protect the information or whether the insurance company shares the information. In these situations, we will try to release the minimum information necessary in response to requests from your insurance company.

Copayments are due at the time of service.

Collection procedures will be initiated when payments are past due. This may involve using a collection agency or filing a claim in small claims court. In collection situations, we will make all efforts to release the minimum information necessary to proceed with collections or a claim, which will include the client name, dates, times, and the nature of services, and the amount due. Before we engage a collection agency, we will provide you with written notice of our intent to do so, sent to your last address we have on record, and give you an opportunity to make payment arrangements. The responsible party agrees to pay all collection fees, including attorney fees, court costs and other expenses incurred in the collection of delinquent accounts.

I have read, understand and consent to assignment of authorized health insurance benefits by my health insurer to Krupnick Counseling Associates for services furnished to me or my dependents.

Yes, Please email my reminder to:

Appointment reminders are offered as a courtesy & based on staffing availability. We will make every effort to provide the requested reminder, however, we are not responsible for deleted messages, disconnected or wrong phone numbers, mechanical/phone line failures, full voicemail boxes, or other unforeseen events that would prevent you from receiving the reminder. Not receiving a reminder regarding an appointment does not absolve your responsibility in terms of our missed appointment / no show policy. Please initial here that you have read the above statement:

COMMUNICATION by Email & Other Non-Secure Means

It may become useful during the course of treatment to communicate by email, text message (e.g. "SMS") or other electronic methods of communication. Be informed that these methods, in their typical form, are not confidential means of communication. If you use these methods to communicate with Krupnick Counseling Associates (KCA) there is a reasonable chance that a third party may be able to intercept and eavesdrop on those messages. The kinds of parties that may intercept these messages include, but are not limited to:

- People in your home or other environments who can access your phone, computer, or other devices that you use to read & write messages
Your employer, if you use your work email to communicate with a KCA therapist
Third parties on the Internet such as server administrators and others who monitor Internet traffic

If there are people in your life that you don't want accessing these communications, please talk with your KCA therapist about ways to keep your communications safe and confidential.

CONSENT FOR TRANSMISSION OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION BY NON-SECURE MEANS

This Consent is Optional

I, consent to allow Krupnick Counseling Associates to use unsecured email messaging to transmit to me the following protected health information: (mark only those you authorize)

Collection Policies

Financial Responsibility for Minors: We realize that many families are in a state of change. Divorced, separated, single parent and blended families are common. In many of these families the question of who is responsible for the children’s medical bill is uncertain. The policy of our office is that the parent who requests treatment for the child is responsible for all fees incurred. However, our office is happy to work with families who would like to put two forms of payment on file when sharing the financial responsibility for co-payment and session fees.

Collection Procedures: Collection procedures will be initiated when payments are 60 days past due. This may involve using a collection agency or filing a claim in small claims court. In collection situations, we will make all efforts to release the minimum information necessary to proceed with collections or a claim, which will include the client name, dates, times, and the nature of services, and the amount due. Before we engage a collection agency, we will provide you with written notice of our intent to do so, sent to your last address we have on record, and give you an opportunity to make payment arrangements. The responsible individual agrees to pay all collection fees, including attorney fees, court costs and other expenses incurred in the collection of delinquent accounts.

KRUPNICK COUNSELING ASSOCIATES
MANDATORY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
(required by C.R.S. 12-43-214)

Jackie Vosper, LCSW
Licensed Clinical Social Worker, Colorado #00001663
Master of Social Work, University of Illinois

The Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies has the general responsibility of regulating the practice of licensed psychologists, licensed clinical social workers, licensed professional counselors, licensed marriage and family therapists, certified and licensed addiction counselors, and unlicensed individuals who practice psychotherapy. The agency within the Department that has responsibility specifically for licensed and unlicensed psychotherapists is the: Department of Regulatory Agencies, Mental Health Section, 1560 Broadway, Suite 1350, Denver, CO 80202, (303) 894-7766, DORA_MentalHealthBoard@state.co.us

Levels of regulations of mental health professionals in Colorado include licensing (requires minimum education, experience, and examination qualifications), certification (requires minimum training, experience, and for certain levels, examination qualifications), and registration (does not require minimum education, experience, or training). All levels of regulation require passing a jurisprudence take-home examination.

A Licensed Clinical Social Worker, a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, and a Licensed Professional Counselor must hold a master's degree in their profession and have two years' post-master's supervision. A Licensed Psychologist must hold a doctorate degree in psychology and have one year of post-doctoral supervision. A Licensed Social Worker must hold a master's degree in social work. A Psychologist Candidate, a Marriage and Family Therapist Candidate, and a Professional Counselor Candidate must hold the necessary licensing degree and be in the process of completing the required supervision for licensure. A Certified Addiction Counselor I (CAC I) must be a high school graduate, and complete required training hours and 1000 hours of supervised experience. A CAC II must complete additional required training hours and 2,000 hours of supervised experience. A CAC III must have a bachelor's degree in behavioral health, and complete additional required training hours and 2,000 hours of supervised experience. A Licensed Addiction Counselor must have a clinical master's degree and meet the CAC III requirements. A Registered Psychotherapist is registered with the State Board of Registered Psychotherapists, is not licensed or certified, and no degree, training or experience is required.

You are entitled to receive information about the methods of assessment and psychotherapy, the techniques used, the duration of the therapy (if known), and the fee structure. Please carefully review our financial and procedural policies. You may seek a second opinion from another therapist or terminate therapy at any time. In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant or certificate holder, at the address/phone number/email address listed above.

Generally speaking, the information provided by and to a client during therapy is legally confidential, and the therapist cannot be forced to disclose information without the client's consent or in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of Colorado without the consent of the person to whom the testimony sought relates. There are exceptions to this confidentiality, some of which are provided in sections C.R.S. 12-43-218, 18-6.5-108, in the Notice of Privacy Practices you were provided, as well as other exceptions in Colorado and Federal law. If a legal exception arises during therapy, you will be informed accordingly, if feasible. The following are some exceptions to confidentiality:

1. You sign a release of information form giving permission for the therapist to provide specified information about your treatment to a particular individual or agency.
2. The therapist reasonably suspects or has proof of child abuse and/or neglect.
3. The therapist reasonably suspects or has proof of abuse, neglect, and/or exploitation of elderly individuals.
4. You are in imminent danger of harming yourself and/or others, including those identifiable by their association with a specific location or entity. In this situation, your therapist is required to disclose such information to the appropriate authorities and/or to warn the party, location, or entity you have threatened.
5. Therapist testimony is subpoenaed in a court case or court ordered by a judge.
6. You file a suit or grievance against the therapist.
7. The therapist is being reviewed by the Mental Health Section of the Division of Registrations.

Krupnick Counseling Associates (KCA) works with a medical biller. In accordance with HIPAA, for billing purposes only, pertinent information is disclosed to the biller, including name, demographic and contact information, diagnoses, social security number, and any similar information required by your insurance company or reimbursement program. KCA has entered into a Business Associates Agreement with Professional Billing Office.

There may be times when your therapist needs to consult with a colleague or another professional such as an attorney or supervisor, about issues raised by you in therapy. Your confidentiality is still protected during consultation by your therapist and the professional consulted. Only the minimum amount of information necessary to consult will be disclosed. Signing this disclosure statement gives your therapist permission to consult as needed to provide professional services to you as a client. You will need to sign a separate Authorization for Release of Information for any discussion or disclosure of your protected health information to another professional besides an attorney retained by your therapist.

When working with a minor, information regarding the child’s progress will be provided to the parent(s) or guardian(s) upon request, but specific information provided during therapy by the minor is protected by law. If the minor is fifteen (15) years of age or older, it is at the therapist’s discretion to advise parents of the services given or needed by the minor.

In therapy where a family or a couple is the “client”, the therapist holds a “no secrets” policy. Please be aware that information you choose to share with your therapist, in this context, that is particularly pertinent to all participating members of the family may come out in counseling. This pertains to all face-to-face, written, and phone conversations and messages. If your therapist meets with one or multiple members of the family in individual sessions, the contents of those meetings may be shared with the non-attending members, if the therapist determines that the information must be disclosed for therapy to be effective. Should you feel it is necessary to disclose something in this context that you wish to be kept confidential, your therapist can refer you to another therapist who can treat you individually. Your therapist cannot release the record from couples/family therapy without authorization from all participating members of the family.

KCA therapists provide non-emergency psychotherapeutic services by scheduled appointment only. If your therapist believes your psychotherapeutic issues are outside his/her level of competence or scope of practice, the therapist is legally required to refer, terminate, or consult. If, for any reason, you are unable to contact your therapist by telephone, and you are having a true physical or mental health emergency, please dial 911, go to your nearest emergency room, or call Colorado’s Crisis Hotline (844) 493-8255. If you seek afterhours treatment from any counseling agency, center, emergency room, hospital or similar facility, you are solely responsible for any fees due.

In the case that your therapist becomes disabled, dies, or is away on an extended leave of absence, another therapist at KCA will have access to your client files. If your therapist is unable to contact you prior to such an event occurring, KCA will contact you. KCA will arrange for another therapist in the practice to continue your treatment, or to offer you referrals and transfer your client record, if requested.

Paper patient records are kept in locked file cabinets at KCA. Currently, Colorado law requires that we maintain our records for a period of seven (7) years commencing on the date of termination of services or the date of last contact with the client, whichever is later. When the client is a child, the records must be maintained for a period of seven years commencing either upon the last day of treatment or when the child reaches 18 years of age, whichever comes later, but in no event shall records be kept for more than 12 years. After this time, your records will be destroyed. If you would like further information about the maintenance of your records, please ask.

Any person who alleges that a mental health professional has violated the licensing laws related to the maintenance of records of a client eighteen years of age or older, must file a complaint or other notice with the licensing board within seven years after the person discovered or reasonably should have discovered this.

Although confidentiality extends to electronic communications, KCA cannot guarantee that those communications will be kept confidential and/or that a third party may not access the communications. Even though KCA utilizes current encryption methods, firewalls, and back-up systems to help secure communications, there is a risk that the electronic or telephone communications may be compromised by a third party. Faxes can easily be sent erroneously to the wrong address. NEVER use email or text for emergencies.

If you have questions or would like more information, please ask at any time.

I have read the preceding information and it has also been provided verbally if I am unable to read or have no written language. I understand my rights as a client or guardian of a client. By signing below I acknowledge my understanding and agree to all the terms discussed in this disclosure statement. I also affirm, by signing this form, that I am the legal guardian and/or custodial parent with legal right to consent to treatment for any minor child or children for whom I am requesting psychotherapy services.

PRIVACY NOTICE

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. If you have any questions about this notice, please contact our Privacy Officer, Kehle Griego, at 303-651-1515 or Kehle@krupnickcounseling.com. You may also view this policy on our website: www.krupnickcounseling.com. The following information will cover YOUR RIGHTS / YOUR CHOICES / OTHER DISCLOSURES

YOUR RIGHTS

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.

We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record

You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.

We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.

We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.

If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information

You can request an accounting of the time we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask. The accounting will not include disclosures pertaining to specific treatment, payment and health care operations. We will provide one accounting per year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.

Choose someone to act for you

We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 1.

You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.

We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

YOUR CHOICES

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

-Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care

-Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information:

Marketing purposes/Sale of your information.

OUR USES AND DISCLOSURES

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you

We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you if you sign a release or if we feel you are in danger. Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.

Run our organization

We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary. Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.

Bill for your services

We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities. Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways—usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:
Preventing disease
Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

Do research

We can use or share your information for health research. Any information shared would not include identifying information.

Comply with the law

We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director

We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director with a valid court order.

Law enforcement, and other government requests

We can use or share health information about you with:
Law enforcement, in cases where safety is a concern.
Law enforcement, when presented with a valid court order.
Health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law.
Under valid court order for special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Other Disclosures Permitted by Colorado Law:

Maintenance of your safety and others' safety

We can share certain health information about you in order to maintain your safety and/or others' safety should your treatment provider determine that you present an imminent danger to yourself or to an identified other person(s).

Respond to lawsuits or complaints

If you file a lawsuit or licensing board complaint about your care, and/or if a review of your care is conducted by a licensing board/professional organization, certain disclosures of health information are permitted

Business Associates

We may enter into contracts with business associates that are outside entities to provide billing, legal, auditing, and practice management services. In those situations, protected health information will be provided to those contractors as needed to perform their contracted tasks. Business associates are required to enter into an agreement maintaining the privacy of the protected health information released or accessed by them.

Special Notes Regarding the Privacy Policies of Krupnick Counseling Associates and WorkWise Employee Assistance Program:

We will only share information about your treatment without authorization from you (including your identity) under the following conditions:

1.) We are required by law and professional ethics to report possible child abuse and/or neglect. Depending on the circumstances, reports are made to the appropriate law enforcement agency or the county social services department.

2.) We report suspected elder abuse to the relevant adult protective services agency.

3.) In cases where we are concerned about the immediate safety of clients or others, we take whatever action we deem appropriate, including contact with hospitals and law enforcement agencies.

4.) We are required by law to report danger to a place/location

5.) We are required by law to release treatment records if we receive a valid Court Order to do so, or to challenge the Court Order for certain specific reasons.

6.) Limited information about your treatment needs may be shared with your health insurer in order for treatment to be authorized and paid for.

Uses and disclosures requiring authorization

We may use or disclose PHI for purposes outside of treatment, payment, or health care operations when your appropriate authorization is obtained. In those instances when we are asked for information for purposes outside of treatment, payment or health care operations, we will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information. We will also obtain an authorization from you before using or disclosing PHI in a way that is not described in this Notice. You may revoke all such authorizations at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. You may not revoke an authorization to the extent that (1) We have relied on that authorization; or (2) if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, law provides the insurer the right to contest the claim under the policy.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.

We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.

We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.

We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

If you have any questions about these policies or any issues covered by the federal government's privacy notice, please speak with your therapist, our Privacy Officer (Kehle Griego), or our director, Louis Krupnick.

For more information see:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

CHANGES TO THE TERMS OF THIS NOTICE

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.

Effective Date of This Notice: 10/25/2018
